Inside school this week....

We have moved!

Children have taken the “big move” in their stride and are thoroughly enjoying their new Early Years facility. Thank you for your patience whilst we “tweak” the final access arrangements. May I extend my congratulations to Mrs Martin and her team at Hook Junior School on achieving Ofsted’s highest accolade, that of “Outstanding” in their recent inspection. I hope you have a lovely Bank holiday weekend.

Tickets for the HSPA Beer festival on 6th May at Hook Community Centre are still on sale at the school office at a cost of £6 per ticket.

School gates will open at 3.05pm each day. This allows for children to finish their learning and get ready for home without distraction. Thank you.

Year group trips

Year 1 will shortly be visiting Alice Holt and Year R, Bucklebury Farm. Thank you for returning your forms and making payment in person or by your Parentmail account for the first time. Please be aware that although contributions for these trips are voluntary, the trips will have to be cancelled if not enough funds are raised. If you feel unable to contribute please contact Mrs Evans in confidence, to see if any assistance can be offered. Thank you.
